St. Louis, July, 1876.—JAMES A. JACKSON & CO.: Gentlemen —As you have communicated to the medical profession the recipe of the "Home Bitters." it cannot, therefore, be considered as a socret or palent medicine, no patent having been taken for it. We have examined the formula for making the "Home Bitters," and unhesitatingly say the combination is one of rare excellence, all the articles used in its composition are the best of the class to which they belong, being highly Tonic, Stimulant, Stomachie, Carminative and slightly Laxative. The mode of prepareing them is strictly in accordance with the rules of pharmacy. Having used them, seen its effect in our private practice, we take pleasure in recommending them to all persons desirous of taking bitters, as being the best Tonic and Stimusant now offered to the public. best Tonic and Stimulaut now offered to the public.
